

Computer Support Services

8e6 Authentication Instructions

Effective immediately, when you receive the Access Denied screen shown to the right click on the hyperlink

On the Options screen click the hyperlink in Option 1

Click Yes on the Security Alert window

On the Web Access Authentication screen enter your email user name and your email password (do not share this information with anyone, especially students)

This window will flash briefly on your screen and then you will be allowed access to the site

